ICE CREAM.

My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR ICE CREAM that has made a name in this community, and is known everywhere as BRENKLE'S ICE CREAM. I can easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my cream would lose the good name that years of fair dealing have won for it. I ask that persons abroad ordering "Brenkle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST ICE CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so.

Mr. H. R. Stevens.

Dear Sir: I have been sick two years with Vegetine I rest well and relish my food. Can recommend the Vegetine for what is has done for me. Yours respectfully, Mrs. ALBERT RICKER.

Witness of the above, Mr. George M. Vaughan, Medford, Mass.

consider there is nothing equal to it for such complaints. Can heartily recommend it to everybody. Yours truly, Mrs. LIZZIE M. PACKARD,

Polygamist's Doom.

A Salt Lake correspondent writes:—On Sunday we visited the Tabernacle. This is a most remarkable building, designed and built by Brigham Young ten years ago. We admired the dome like ceiling, "well scooped out" and held firmly in the air by invisible hands, as the early Mormon teachers taught their deluded brethren. Though it is a temple made with hands, in size it might be likened to "nature's temple," for 16,000 people can be accommodated within its walls. Galleries extend along three sides of the building, leaving one end for the elevated tribune, on which rests the huge organ, forming a background to the three pulpits, which rise one above another.

The highest pulpit was formerly occupied by Brigham Young, and considered by him the "holy of holies." The second is the apostles', and the bishops representing the different wards of the city occupy the third and lower pulpit.

We heard the voice of Orson Pratt, one of the twelve, though we could not distinguish a word he uttered, as his motions were so rapid that as from the apostle's desk, but concluded it to be a harangue in the usual Mormon style—

"Live your religion, pay your tithing," etc.—

The congregation was mostly composed of elderly people, hard-banded sons and daughters of toil from the old countries. The youthful Mormons do not attend the services of the church, for they are fast losing faith in the teachings of these latter day prophets.
